THRESHING MACHINE, And Horse Power.

THE undersigned having purcheed the right of S. S. Alaen, to construct and sell his PATENT THRESHING MACHINE for getting out Grain, and fur applying Horse Power are prepared to have their constructed on the short test notice. The following certificates, from practical farmers, it is presumed, will be a sufficient recommendation to these Machines.

I certify, that Mr S. S. Allen's Threshing Machine was put in operation at this place, and that it performed remarkable well, superior to a or other chine was put in operation at this prace, and that it performed remarkable well, superior to any other Machine of the kind that I have ever tried. From the experiment I witnessed with it, I have no the experiment I witnessed with it, I have no the experiment I witnessed with its triangle of the State, doubt that with two horses, and well attended, it have performed the duties assigned them in a very Ashland, Ang. 31st, 1836.

I concur in the above opinion of Mr. Clay, having seen Mr Allen's Threshing Machine in operation. I consider it a valuable improvement on those herctofore in use in this country. Signed, GEO. POINDEXTER.

I certify, that I have examined the Threshing Machine of Mr Saml. S. Allen's, and think it decidedly the best Machine of the kind I have ever seen, and I have no doubt, if it was driven by two horses, and well attended, it would thesh out several hundred bushels in a day. Signed, LEONIDAS POLK.

Lexington, Ky . Sept. 7, 1836. North Elkhorn Spet. 9th, 1836.

Thave seen in operation, on the farm of my neighbor Col. Hamilton Atchison, the Threshing Machine of M. Saml. S. Allen, and leel free to declare, that I consider it a valoable improvement and much preferable to other Machines I have sean, not only in regard to the speed and facility in getting out grain, the simplicity of its construc tion and keeping in order, but especially its superfor manner in detaching the grain from the straw and the straight and fine condition in which the straw is left for the cutting box, or rather agricultural purposes. Signed,

THOS. A. RUSSELL.

NEW JERSEY.

We presume there can be now no doubt with either party, how the vote of New Jersey will be cast. By nn error of Legislation, the day appointed for the choice of Electors in this State, was not within the pale of the U.S. Constitution, consequently the choice will devolve on the Legislature. The late elections in New Jersey have terminated in the choice of 8 Councilmen and 32 Representatives, Democrats-and 6 Councilmen and 18 Representatives, Whigs-making a democratic, Van Buren and Johnson majori ty of 16, on joint ballot.

We presume no one, either democrat or whig, ean now doubt the sound democratie principles of Pennsylvania. She has gloriously manifested them in her Inte elections, and will certainly support the Van Buren ticket in November.

The fox once called the grapes "sour." So it will be with some of the spies appointed at the meeting which adopted the secret resolutions for the organization of the Wiggies. If they attack the 'doubtful voters" they will be told "it is no go." If they try to train the thinking part of the community, they will be told, "1" think of it." If they talk to a democrat and attempt to cxplain the matter, they will be laughed at. The only cansolation left will be "sour grapes, sour

It is but a sorry compliment to the readers and supporters of a paper, to say the least of it.

For our own part we would not give to our readers, a statement known to be uncertain, without saying so. Yet how many tales have been told by the different presses of the opposition concerning the late elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio? and for what? Ask them for what? The answer will be (privotely) "for effect"and what is the effect? We answor, not only to lower in the estimation of the public the character of the Press-but, to rivet the attention of the public to the transactions of such "loaders" as have assumed the right to command the people not to vote against their orders.

The first effect-viz: as to the character of the press, we deplore. The second we are pleased with-for when once the attention of the people is drawn to this course, pursued by the opposition "leaders," such attempts to poke things down their throats, will be met with the indignation which they deserve, and we are in the hope that Kentuckians whether called Whigs ar Democrats, have mental faculties sufficient to discover-moral energy sufficient to contemn-and popular strength sufficient to render useless-the efforts of some, to establish a kind of dic-

But Col. Johnson has ventured to leave home and visit several places since his return from Washington and this forsooth is an unheard-of thing in a candidate. If he chose to defend himsolf by illustrious precident, surely he could offer such as the all sorts would acknowledge. Who was it that, upon leaving Washington, made a grand tour through the States, pronouncing philipies at every village against Gen, Jackson? Who was it that said he would rather war, pestilence and famine, or any other seourge, should visit his country than that Gen. Jackson should be elected? This was done by a caudidale; yes, and he did worse whilst he was n candidate. He availed himself of his place in the Senate of the United States to defame a competitor, who had no means of repelling his calumnies there or elsewhere. But the committee seem to have forgotten where Gen. Harrison and Mr. Granger are at present. By the last accounts, Gen. II. was in Pennsylvania, and Mr. Granger was on a visit to Ohio. But of course this is all right and proper, as their object is to defeat Mr. Van Buronanother man worse than war, pestilence and famine to their ringed, streaked, and speckled party -- for he neither favors nullification, or bank rule, or that happy invention of rag mocey, by which speeulators can swindle the poor man of his

The oft-repeated stories which the committee of the all sorts have again repeated against this gentleman are scarce worthy of notice. But Dr. Dudley has prescribed their at this time, no doubt, to operate again before the election. But the people won't swallow them.

Every hody knows that Mr Van Buren did vote on the subject of the Missouri resolution, as every democrat would have voted -- in obedience to the will of his constituents, proclaiming at the same time, that he disagreed with them That he is not an abolitionist, the proclamation of Tappan, & Co. fully shows; and if confirmation were wanting, tis found in the violent opposition of Granger and the slave junto. His letter to the Georgia representation, the resolutions drawn by himself, and passed at a public meeting at Albany; the conduct of Mr Beardsly and others of his immediate friends, in expelling the Abolition Convention from Utica, must satisfy every mind on that subject.

As to the voting for free negro suf frage, there is no need of arguing that point. The assertion is directly in the face of truth, flatly and wholy contradicted by the journals of the Legislature, as well as by his arguments upon the occasion. More anon.

Let us as our sister States have done, avail ourselves of our reason and experience to correct the crude essays of our first and inexperienced, although wise, virtuous and well-meaning councils. And, lastiy, let us provide in our constitution for its reversion at stated periods. What these periods should he, nature herself indicates. By the adults living at any one moment of less than 1000 over Kirk. time, a majority will be dead in almost 19 years. At the end of that period, then a new majority is come into place, or in other words, a new generation. Each generation is as independent of the one preceding as that was of all which had gone hefore. It has then, like them, a right to choose for itself the form of government it believes most promotive of its own happiness: consequently to accommodate to the circumstances, in which it decessors, and it is for the peace and good of mankind that a solemn opportunity of doing this every eighteen or twenty years should be provided by the constitution, so that it may be handed on with periodical repairs from generation to generation, to the end of time, if any thing human can so long endure. It is now 40 years since the Constitution of Virginia was formed. the same tables inform us, that within that period two thirds of the adults then living are now dead. Have then the remaining third, even if they had the wish, the right to hold in obedience to their will, and to the laws heretofore made by them, the other two thirds who with them compose the present mass of adults? If they have not, who has? The dead? But the dead have no rights. They are nothing; and nothing cannot own something. Where there is no substance, there can be no accident. Observer and Intelligencer insert til the day. TO THE PATRONS AND FRIENDS OF

THE MONITOR. IIIE poblisher of this paper, partaking of the general feeling of the democracy of Kentucky, as regards the prospects of success for their candidates in the ensuing November elections; and believing that the accomplishment of this object depends upon the zeal and exertions of their friends, in spreading before the people sound political littelligince, and counteracting the baleful efforts of their foes; is induced to suggest to his political friends and patrons, the propriety of extending the circulation of the Maysville Monitor, as an auxiliary in the consumation of this de-sired end. His exertions to render the Monitor useful in the cause of patriotism and democracy, while they have been asidooos and untiring, have heen attenued with an iocunsiderable expense. The extension of the subscription list, he flatters himself, may be attended with results favorable to the promotion of the cause of Republican principles, and destructive to faction: at the same time t will enable him to persevere in the improvement of his paper. Our friends in the State are sofficiently aware of the sleepless vigilance of their opponents at all times, to know that their success in the late elecion will be attended with no relaxation of their offorts, but on the contrary will inspirit and embolden them to greater daring and outrage, than has ever yet marked their hostility to the parity of epoblican principlesr Their editors, their office holders, their orators and private members, will be in the field, and every effort that interest, malice, or iogenuity can suggest, will be placed in speedy requisition. Prudeoce, justice, nor even the restraints of morality, will be regarded, when ous. Their phalaux of newspapers, whose editors long for the spoils of victory, with more anxiety than "the hart panteth for the cooling brook." have displayed in the late encounter, a reckless and daring industry, seldom if ever exceeded by any political partisans. What may we not expect from them in the succeeding conflict? Their papers find their way into every nook and corner of the State, and if we expect to cope with them, we should at least be placed upon an equal foot ing. Let the first object then be to give a wide circulation to the Demogratic papers in the State.

object of their creation. To make it an object with the democracy to circulate the Monitor, it will be afforded to octo committees requiring this or a greater a number at the rate of $5 per ten copies, if paid in advauce. Single capies, or less number than ten, will cost the usual price -622 cents for three

Agents and subscribers to the Monitor, are remested to use their exertions in obtaining ading them immediately to this office.

LINIMENT is celebrated for its southing and stimulating qualities, to those who are in pain. It has a decided advantage over all other Lauiments known, as it is not so volotile; there is a body to it which keeps the articles of stimulant from escaping from the system, and when the absorbant vessels take up the substance of the Linineent, it puts the system into action, and then the covering is thrown off, and perspiration makes its appearance.
